

Who Says the Times are A-Changin'?

Although we are known as the greatest innovators in the summer recreation profession, we never forget our roots and the Crestwood traditions...

Crestwood
1956

Crestwood
2007

Next summer, we will reintroduce games and activities that have long been forgotten, but were an important part of many adults' childhood...

1966

2007

The youngsters can look forward to camp activities that will include a variety of street games such as stickball, campfires, folk dances and learning original Crestwood songs!

1968

2007

All pictures are original Crestwood photographs, some of which are over 50 years old. Look for more on the "What's New" area of our web page!