Journey to Camp Ramah

Camp Ramah in California is located at the Max and Pauline Zimmer Conference Center in the heart of the Ojai Valley. Camp Ramah is surrounded by mountains, trees and beautiful campgrounds. Enjoy the famous Kosher gourmet food, and take advantage of our tennis courts, sports facilities and hiking trails.

Rikkudiah Program

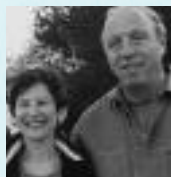

Rikkudiah check-in begins at 1:00 p.m. on Friday, January 18th. The Friday afternoon program begins at 2:30 p.m. with a "Past Hits and Oldies" session led by our guest instructors, followed by two specialty workshops. The weekend program includes Friday night and Shabbat morning services, all meals, housing, dancing and singing. Separate classes are offered for beginners, intermediate and advanced level dancers. Wood floors in all dance rooms!

Children's Dance Program

Children ages 8-13 enjoy a special class with their own dance instructor, Shirley Burr-Smith.

Rikkudiah Staff

Rikkudiah Directors

Natalie and Reuven Stern have been involved with Ramah Rikkudiah since its inception and have been the directors for the past 13 years. Natalie has taught Israeli dance for the last 37 years across Los Angeles and Reuven is also a veteran dance instructor and performer. Under their leadership, Ramah Rikkudiah has become one of the top dance camps in the nation.

Special Guests

Yaron Malichi brings his dynamic personality and passionate energy to Israeli Folk Dancing. Some of his popular dances: Malkat Hachatunot, Al Salsalim, Gever Mishtagea, Chatan Bar Mitzvah, Malach Sheli, and many more. We are delighted to have Yaron with us for the first time at Camp Ramah.

Tuvia Tishler brings style and class to Israeli Folk Dancing. He was a dancer and choreographer for the Karmon Troupe and Gvanim Dance Group. Tuvia is an accomplished choreographer. Among many of his credits are: Hatzel Ve'ani, Rosa, Im Rotzim, Mikarov, Yasu Hachaim, Nashkini Na, Beleylot Ha'kayitz, and many more. We are absolutely delighted to have Tuvia join us at Ramah Rikkudiah for the first time.
